

EVENT PROGRAM

The Study Gold Coast Employability Symposium 2019 will examine the latest research findings, identify global trends and provide you with the knowledge and tools to navigate the future of work, education and the career opportunities of tomorrow. The symposium will provide practical skills for teachers, institutions, businesses and the public sector to meet the challenges of the new work order.

TIME	PROGRAM
08:30 - 09:00	Registration Open
09:00 - 09:15	Official Opening Alfred Slogrove, CEO Study Gold Coast
09:15 - 10:00	The Health and Knowledge Employability and Workforce Strategy Project Presented by Michelle King, KPMG
10:00 - 10:10	Q & A
10:10 - 10:45	Morning Tea
10:45 - 11:30	Anticipating Future Skills: Jobs growth and alternative futures for Queensland to 2022 Presented by Mr Brett Hall, Research, Projects and Policy Director, Jobs Queensland
11:30 - 11:40	Q & A
11:40 - 12:25	New Work Order Presented by Alex Snow, Head of Research, Foundation for Young Australians
12:25 - 12:35	Q & A
12:35 - 13:30	Lunch
13:30 - 15:00	Workshops Workshop 1 – YLab – Presented by Foundation for Young Australians (FYA) Workshop 2 – Creating Market Ready Graduates For Tomorrow – by Nannette Ripmeester Workshop 3 – Education Sector For Innovative Business Solutions – by Beau Leese
15:00 - 15:35	Afternoon Tea
15:35 - 16:20	International Students: A Guide for Australian Employers Presented by IEAA (International Education Association of Australia)
16:20 - 16:30	Q & A
16:30 - 16:50	Talent for Business Growth Presented by Alfred Slogrove, CEO Study Gold Coast
16:50 - 17:00	Close
17:00 - 18:30	Networking Drinks